The lifeblood of any magazine is made up of top-notch contributors and dedicated readers. Over the years, Crochet World has published countless quality designs from many talented and diverse crochet artists. It's what our loyal readers have come to expect and grown to love about this award-winning magazine that's truly America's favorite crochet publication (check out our latest award below!).

This issue is no exception when it comes to creative designs with a little something for everyone. With so much focus these days on recycling and reusing, we have several great designs that let you take items you may already have on hand and use them in a new way. Our Denim Pocket Place Mat and Rag-ety Rug are perfect projects for recycling old jeans. A large plastic container from the grocery store that once contained cheese puffs can be reinvented into a cute yarn or storage tote. And don't get rid of that plain long-sleeve T-shirt that has lost its charm. By adding lacy crochet inserts in the sleeves, you can create a whole new look with longer wearability.

Aug. 2, 2015, is National Friendship Day, and our Celebrate Friends section offers several gift ideas for remembering those special people in our lives. Included are a set of cute mug rugs, a pretty eyewear case, a glamorous scarf and a sweet floral necklace.

Thank you to all of the designers who have helped make Crochet World the outstanding magazine it is, and to the readers who have made Crochet World America's favorite crochet magazine!

Happy stitching,

Carol Alexander

Meet the Winner

Eve Leder

I cannot remember a time when I was not interested in some sort of artistic expression. I am self-taught and love beading, crochet, decorative painting, decoupage, jewelry making, knitting, paper crafts, polymer clay and sewing!

I got hooked on crochet when I started crocheting afghans. Busy crafters understand how hard it can be to carve out large blocks of time to work on and to finish a project, so crocheting afghans one square at a time was the solution. Each square is like a mini project that can be finished in a spare moment.

The creation of Nyla the Indian Elephant for the Winner's Circle was the result of a trip to a Japanese bookstore with my friend. I discovered amigurumi, the Japanese art of making small stuffed animals and anthropomorphic creatures.

My work has appeared in Bead Design Studio, Bead Unique, BeadWork, Crafts 'n Things, Craft Ideas, Create & Decorate, Crochet World, Just Cards!, PolymerCAFE, Quick & Easy Painting, RubberStampMadness, Scrap & Stamp Arts, Soft Dolls & Animals and Stitch. If you are interested in seeing more of my work, please visit my blog at www.craftdesignerforhire.blogspot.com.

Her name means "winner" in the Indian culture, and it couldn't be more appropriate for this adorable Winner's Circle design!

Rag-ety Rug

Design by Jennifer Raymond

1 2 3 4 5 6 EASY

FINISHED MEASUREMENTS

25 inches wide x 36 inches long

MATERIALS

- Lily Sugar 'n Cream medium (worsted) weight cotton yarn (2½ oz/120 yds/71g per ball): 5 balls #118 stonewash
- Size H/8/5mm crochet hook or size needed to obtain gauge
- Sharp tapestry needle
- 2-inch wide denim strips (or other cotton rags): 44 yds
- Measuring tape
- Locking stitch marker

GAUGE

16 sc rows over fabric strips = 10 inches; 18 sc over fabric strips = 4 inches

PATTERN NOTES

Weave in loose ends as work progresses.

Single crochet stitches are worked around fabric strips. When working around the fabric strips, make sure to stretch the single crochet over the fabric, so it lies tidily and not clumped up.

Strips at end of rows are folded back around for the next row, forming a continuous zigzag.

If Rug bunches, slide the fabric through single crochets to make sure they lie flat.

Every couple of rows, measure to make sure Rug maintains width of 25 inches.

FABRIC PREPARATION

When preparing fabric strips for use, strips can be prepared one of two ways:

For tidier look, sew strips together at short ends at an angle, to create a long rag ball. Fold strips over twice and press with an iron to create a strip that is ½ inch wide.

For more rustic look, simply crochet over the strips without pressing them or seaming them. When a strip ends, simply fold end of a new strip into middle of old strip and work over them.

RUG

Measure 36 inches in from end of first strip, holding 2 strands of yarn tog, fold yarn over strip, ch 1, work 100 sc toward beg of strip, distributing sts evenly along strip, stop 1½ inches from end. Fold strip over, 6 sc over doubled strip, place stitch marker. Work 6 sc in lp formed by strip. Now hold the strip so the side just worked is pointing toward ground, and work along other side of strip.

Work 107 sc between sc on other side of strip. Fasten off.

*Fold strip over to beg working next row, insert hook in first sc, draw lp through, holding both ends, ch 1, drop tail, ch 1, sc in same st as beg ch-1, [sk next 2 sts, 2 sc in next st, ch 1] 35 times, sk next 2 sts, 2 sc in st with stitch marker, fasten off, do not turn.

Fold strip over and position it along next row to be worked, with unworked end pointing to the right. Insert hook in first sc, draw lp through and holding both ends, ch 1, drop tail, ch 1, sc in same first sc, ch 1, [sk next 2 sts, 2 sc in next st, ch 1] 35 times, sk next 2 sts, 2 sc in next st with stitch marker, fasten off, do not turn.

Rep from * until a total of 61 rows are completed.

LAST ROW

Fold strip over to begin working next row. Insert hook in first sc, draw up a lp, holding both ends, ch 1, drop tail, ch 1, sc in first sc, ch 1, [sc in each of next 2 sts, 2 sc in next st] across. Fasten off yarn. Leaving a 2-inch length of denim, cut and fold under to WS inserting underneath sc of previous row.

FINISHING

Using sharp tapestry needle, weave in ends, burying them in fabric strips.

Block with steam or wet-block and allow to dry completely. CW

Strips of material from old jeans create this cushy and practical "rag-ety" rug for any room of the house. It's a great way to use jeans that kids have outgrown.
